The Game

What you need to know before starting.

American roulette is played on a felt-covered table and the wheel has 37 slots numbered 0 to 36. The “0” slot is green and the rest are red and black.

The object of the game is to guess where the ball thrown by the croupier will fall.

BETS:

- The winnings in roulette depend on the type and amount of bets you place.
- Bets are placed with chips that may be obtained at the roulette table itself.
- A placard at the table indicates the minimum and maximum bets you may place.
- There are many betting options, but we advise you to start with the simple ones and use the more complicated ones as you gain experience.
- Always ensure that your chips are properly placed.

SIMPLE BETS:

If the ball lands on zero you lose half the amount of your bet. If you win, the payout is equivalent to the amount of your bet.

Black (Noir)

Even (Pair)

Low Bet (Manque)

Red (Rouge)

Odd (Impair)

High Bet (Passe)

DOZENS:

If the ball lands on zero, the chips played are lost. The payout for these bets is 2 to 1.

SHORT WAGERS:

- Voisins Du Zero/Neighbours of Zero

Nine chips are required for this combination to bet on the 17 numbers on the wheel between the 25 and the 22.

The payout to the winner depends on the bet and the chips played.

- Tiers Du Cylindre/Third of the Wheel

For this bet, six chips are played on the 12 numbers between the 27 and the 33.

The payout to the winner in this bet is 17 to 1 on the amount bet.

- Orphans

Five chips are played on a total of eight numbers, those between the 1 and the 9 on one side, and between the 6 and the 17 on the other, due to their arrangement on the roulette wheel.

The payout to the winner depends on the bet and the chips played.

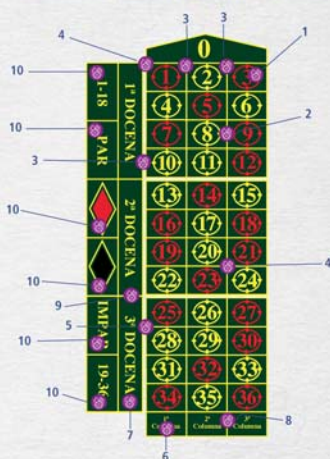

BET ON ONE NUMBER AND ITS NEIGHBOURS:

This wager consists of betting on one specific number and its two “neighbours” on the right and left. A total of five numbers are played. Five chips are required for this bet.

Remember

- All bets must be correctly placed before the crupier announces “no more bets.”
